ONLY DEFENSE COMMITTED

On Which Extradition Could be Had Was Committed There-De-

Police Lleutenant Daniel Ingram arrived at Richmond, Va., last night, and will leave this morning for Fairmont, bringing back to this state for trial, J. M. Harris, the young man who was recently in the employ of James B. Mc-Kee, the Wheeling wholesale cigar man, as a traveling salesman. Harris is taken to Fuirmont instead of Wheeling because the only single act of alleged embezzlement over $20 (the minimum amount on which extradition can be had) occurred from that town. trial on that charge will be held in Marion county, after which he can be prosecuted on the numerous other charges if Mr. McKee feels so disposed Speaking of the Harris cast last night Mr. McKee said:

charges if Mr. McKee feels so disposed.

Speaking of the Harris cast last night Mr. McKee said:

"On Saturday, August 4, last. I returned to town from Capon Springs, and the same day Mr. Harris came in from off the road. I asked him if he had turned in his collections and expense account, and he replied that he would do so on Monday. He came in Monday and asked where I dasked him to go. I reminded him that he should first make his settlement. Then he said he was short, and claimed that he had lost the money while crossing a street in Parkersburg, the money having dropped out of his vest pocked. I told him I didn't believe his story, and accused him of playing poker and losing the money in that way. He entered a denial and insisted that he had lost the money. I then told him to straighten up the matter and I would retain him in my employ. I sent him to Pittsburgh to see an aunt, but he came back and reported she was at Oakland, Md. I then gave him money to go to Oakland, and the stopped at Fairmont, and although not then in my employ he called on D. R. Tappan, the Fairmont hotel man, and collected $25, and $10 each from two other Fairmon men who owed me. He also sold them bills of goods, but, of course, did not send in the order. That was merely his little bluff. The next day he went to Oakland, and then to Parkersburg, where he collected money from three or four firms as my representative. Then he gkipped the state, having learned, doubtless, that I had sent out warnings that he was not in my employ. While in Parkersburg he had a check cashed on a bank in Wheeling where he never had a cent on deposit. Since then I have been tracing Harris through several it go cities, and had him arrested at Charlottsville, Virginia, on December 5, but he was released before the right of the was arrested Tuesday."

tress, whereas when one knows exactly the kind of food to give to quickly rebuild the brain and nerve centers, that knowledge can be made use of.

A young Chicago woman says: "Other instances of the wonderful qualities possessed by Grape-Nuts food are shown in my grandmother's entire left side became totally paralyzed, from a ruptured capillary of the brain. The doctor sail it would be impossible for her to live a week. She could not take ordinary food and we put her on Grape-Nuts, in an effort to do all for her we could.

"To the astonishment of the doctor and the delight of all of us, she slowly rallied and recovered. It was pronounced the first case of the kind on record. The doctor said nothing could have produced this result but food.

"We had been led to use Grape-Nuts because of the effect on mother. She has been troubled with a weak stomach all her life, and the last few years been gradually losing weight and strength. She has tried everything, almost, that has bean recommended by good authority, and until she used Grupe-Nuts food, nothing seemed to do her any good. Since taking Grape-Nuts she has been constantly improving, until now she is free from any of the stomach troubles, and is strong and well. Please do not publish my name."
